

offaehrte sprachreisen

The IP Internationale Projekt GmbH with the brand offaehrte sprachreisen organizes for more than 30 years language trips for children, adolescents and young adults. The offer covers worldwide about 25 course locations with own language schools in England, France and Spain. Native speakers teach in English, French and Spanish. Language students from all over the world learn together at offaehrte sprachreisen in international classes. The trips take place during the Easter, Pentecost, summer and autumn holidays.

Satisfied customers

98 percent satisfied clients: From the initial contact to till long after the end of travel the customer satisfaction is first priority for offaehrte sprachreisen. Online language tests, detailed travel description and an expert customer service make the choice of a suitable trip simple. The range includes language trips for individual needs, expectations and wishes. All trips are professionally organized and supervised.

Learn more than a language

With offaehrte sprachreisen learning a foreign language is fun. The concept combines language and holidays and allows every student to experience a unique sense of achievement. Specially trained native speakers make sure that the participants communicate exclusively in the chosen foreign language during their stay. With offaehrte sprachreisen the students learn more than a language. They expand their cultural competence, have the possibility to try new things during the leisure program, make new friends and strengthen their self-confidence like that.

Competent Care

Regarding trips for children and adolescents offaehrte sprachreisen pays particular attention to competent care. The responsible local staff is being trained intensively and internationally for their assignment. Leisure program and care are determined by the age and needs of the participants.

Fit, activ and healthy offaehrte sprachreisen relies on good nutrition, relaxation, and a lot of movement when dealing with children and adolescents. That is why in the majority of the course locations there is a wide range of sports on offer, chill-Out areas as well as healthy and tasty food. For example there are free fruits, vitamin snacks and water available. In almost every course location vegetarian diet is bookable without any extra charge. In some course locations even a vegan diet is possible. Participants, that need a kosher, gluten-free, lactose-free diet or halal food for health or religious reasons, can contact offaehrte sprachreisen at all times.

Certified quality

All language trips of offaehrte sprachreisen are subject to the standards of the Europe-wide valid language-trip norm (EN 14804) as well as to the quality guidelines of the professional association of German language trips operators (FDSV). The language schools in England are certified by the British Council. All services and offers are inspected regularly by external and independent committees.

Association memberships of offaehrte sprachreisen

- >> Professional association of German language trips operators [Fachverband Deutscher Sprachreise-Veranstalter (FDSV)]
- >> Travel network registered association German professional association of supervised youth travel [Reisenetz e.V. Deutscher Fachverband betreuter Jugendreisen]

A brand of the ruf group

The ruf group unites under the umbrella of the ruf Holding GmbH & Co. KG two specialized tour operators for adolescents and young adults: the ruf Reisen GmbH with the brand ruf Jugendreisen and the IP internationale Projekt GmbH with the brand offaehrte sprachreisen.

Zahlen der ruf Gruppe

Company name:	IP Internationale Projekt GmbH
Managing partner:	Heiner Giese
Headquarters	Bremen
Founding year:	1986
Number of guests:	4,500 annually
Tour guides:	around 100 trained tour guides aged between 18 and 35
Webseite:	www.offaehrte.de

Language trips for Kids (from 8, from 11 years):

Germany and England

Language trips for students (13-15 and 16-17 years):

Germany, England, France, Spain, Italy, Malta and USA

Your contact: Kristina Oehler, presse@offaehrte.de or +49 (0) 521 9627 607

We arrange interviewpartners, provide expert opinions, give a lecture or offer the possibility of a press trip for a background story. You find recent press releases and photos on our homepage under www.offaehrte.de/presse.